“Out of Control” a Daily Devotional

By Althea Debrule

“A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls.” (Proverbs 25:28)

One of the scariest things you can experience in life is a lack of self-control. The Scriptures are clear about how to use restraint when interacting with others. This daily devotional reflects on Proverbs 25:28 and what happens when we are out-of-control.

No Self-Control

Today’s Scripture likens a lack of self-control to a city filled with ruins and no walls to protect it. Anyone or thing can wander into the town, capture it and have power over it.

Out-of-control people have no boundaries, nor have they set any limits to how they act or what they do. They insist on having their way in everything, regardless of how it affects others. Their lack of restraint feels like manipulation and intimidation to others.

Unfortunately, this makes them vulnerable to attack and leaves them helpless; yet in most cases, they cannot see that they are out-of-control. They become “wise in their own eyes” (Proverbs 12:15) and unwilling to rein in their anger and compulsiveness.

Daily Devotional Food for Thought

The only way to keep self-control is to surrender it to The Lord. Only He can work through a person to change the heart and mind, which will lead to the right actions (Psalm 119:01).

Seek The Lord for how to have self-control. Learn restraint by praying and spending time in God’s Word (Proverbs 10:19, 17:27).

Father, as I reflect on today’s Scripture, show me the areas in my life where I lack self-control; and then, guide me in yielding them to You.

DWM NEWS

Hi Ladies,

I hope you all had a nice Christmas with your families. I wish the best to all in the new year.

No news to speak of. The weather bounces from one extreme to another. At least we did not get the snow some parts of the country did.

Our January third Thursday meeting will be on the 19th, weather permitting, at 1:00 in the library. Hope to see a dozen smiling faces. Or more. LOL

That's all for now.
