MERRIAM CHRISTIAN CHURCH DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

Dear Friends,

I met recently with Board members on a Zoom call as we discussed when we might be able to re-open the church for In-Person Worship safely and responsibly. Given that we had five members who had been present in worship contract Covid and one pass away in the past two months, it is, to say the least, an important and serious discussion. During the conversation, one Board member noted that when she had talked with a member of the congregation, they wondered aloud, "Who is making these decisions?". This is an important question and it is important that we all understand the answer.

In many denominations, decisions are made in a hierarchical structure, meaning a bishop or other denominational authority figure makes decisions that are handed down to congregations. However, Disciples of Christ are a congregationally-based denomination, meaning the congregation holds the ultimate say in leadership and direction. You, the members, select and elect the Elders and Deacons who form our Board. They are chosen from the congregation, nominated and voted on at the annual Congregational Meeting in late October, to serve.

We are a church of less than 100 people. You know the Elders and Deacons. They are friends and family. Those who serve are US, nominated by US, voted on by US.

If you feel called to offer your wisdom and perspective to discussions like this, we need you there. You can volunteer to serve as a deacon or elder when nominations are made in the fall. At the congregational meeting, if not already nominated, you can be nominated from the floor and voted on. Even if not selected to serve in this manner, the Board meetings are open meetings. Any member can attend Board meetings and participate in discussions, though only Elders and Deacons may vote.

At times decisions to not meet in-person are made by myself and the Board chair (For instance, during inclement weather). At other times, this fall for instance, leadership in the form of Elders, Deacons, Trustees, and Committee Chairs are brought in to weigh in.

And at times the whole congregation is asked for input, as we are currently seeking.

These are difficult times, and we are dealing with big decisions. Please know that neither myself, nor our current leadership take these decisions lightly. We try to weigh all the factors and make the best decision for the church. At times we will get it wrong, and at times we will get it right. But through it all, we move forward together, as church; as Disciples.

Please be in prayer for our current leadership, and for the decisions they must wrestle with. Pray for wisdom, for compassion, and for grace on each one who answered the call to serve the church this year in this way. Surround them with your love and your kindness as they seek to guide us as best as they can this year. It will not be an easy year, just as the last one was not an easy year. But we face it together, whatever may come.

God Bless and Stay Safe,
Mark

Pastor Mark's Prayerful Meditation mid-week video (12/28)

As the year comes to an end, we breathe a collective sigh of relief. It was quite a year indeed. Take a few short minutes to pause your day and spend a moment in God's Word from the Psalms. Use this time to reconnect with God and remind yourself of God's presence in your life.

This week's meditation comes from Psalm 47

Special ON-Line Meeting of Church Leadership

Tuesday Dec. 29, 2020

Held by Zoom: Pastor Mark Willis, Jackie Watts, Pam Boyd, Donna Rankin, Bob Pape, Joel Beaver, Carole Prentice, Allen Watts, Emily Hooker, Dixie Wheaton, Michelle Land, Jan Pankey, Anita Collins, Irene Heavin, David Roebuck, Greg Spiegel, Mike Nichols

Jackie opened with prayer.

The current numbers of COVID virus are high, vaccine is going slow, anticipate after holidays there will be increased cases. The situation is basically still the same as a month ago.

Pastor Mark's recommendation is in person worship be cancelled for another month with online worship services to continue.

The discussion was as follows:

- ♦ Several people have indicated they want to wait until after the vaccine is out.
- ♦ We have an older congregation, inclined to wait.
- ♦ Think we will lose a lot of people if we do not have in-church services.
- ♦ At the rate of the spread of virus, think we need to wait.
- ♦ If masks are not worn, feel uncomfortable.
- ♦ Go to work and have children going to school, do not want to put others at risk.
- ♦ Miss church, would love to be back.
- ♦ Afraid to go back, not safe until the vaccine is out.
- ♦ Risky, number of cases increased in community & expect spike after holidays.
- ♦ Mixed feelings. Would like to be back, but do not want to put others at risk. Hearing of more people contracting virus, including relatives.

- ♦ Agree in general, however, maybe there is some other way to provide in church service to individuals who want to come. Suggest make calls to members to see how many would like to come.
- ♦ Miss communion at the Table.
- ♦ Not happy the possibility in church services closed for another 30 days.
- ♦ When live streaming/filming worship service, could it be open to those who want to attend? Will put Pastor Mark, Emily and Allen at risk.

Conclusion:

Shepherds will call their flocks and get opinions of all the congregation.

There will be live stream/online church service on Sunday, January 3, with NO IN CHURCH SERVICE.

Another Zoom meeting will be held Tuesday, January 5, to discuss the results of the phone calls to the congregation and to make decision for January.

Prayers:

Prayers requested for Irene Heavin, Alpha Wickham, Judge York and Chief of Police York in KCK and families whose parents/in-laws were killed in car accident on Christmas Day, Bob's niece Jennifer Wilson and Emily's sister Linda Collins both hospitalized with COVID, everyone on recent prayer list, all of Merriam Christian family.

PRAISE:

- Anita Collins is celebrating her first great-grandchild Coraline Jordan! Praises!
- Donna Rankin has a new great-great nephew! Blessings!

We pray for all those who are sick, or are afraid they will get sick. We pray for all those without adequate health insurance who live in fear of injury or disease. We pray for all those on the front lines, healthcare professionals putting their lives at risk to serve. We pray for all the scientists working to find answers and a vaccine. May God's healing spirit be upon our world during this pandemic.

For all those whose employment is being affected, changed, and hampered by the current crisis. Let them not walk alone in this scary time, but let them feel the prayers and support of the great cloud of witnesses surrounding them as they traverse this difficult path.

For our churches. Help us to find our way forward to be the serving living embodiment of the Body of Christ in difficult and trying times.

Names added to the prayer list will remain on the prayer list for one month. Let the office know if a prayer request needs to stay on the list for longer or shorter than one month.

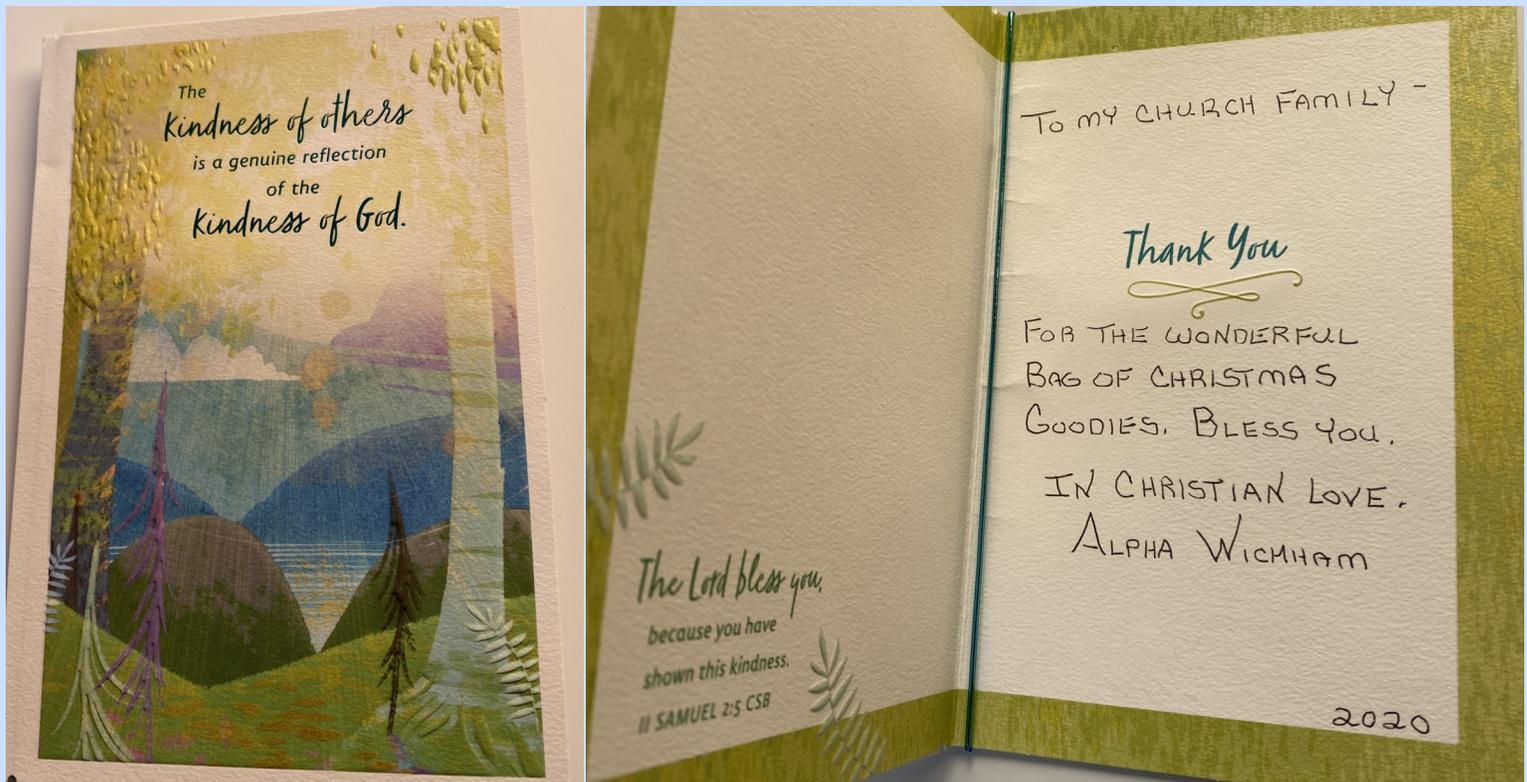

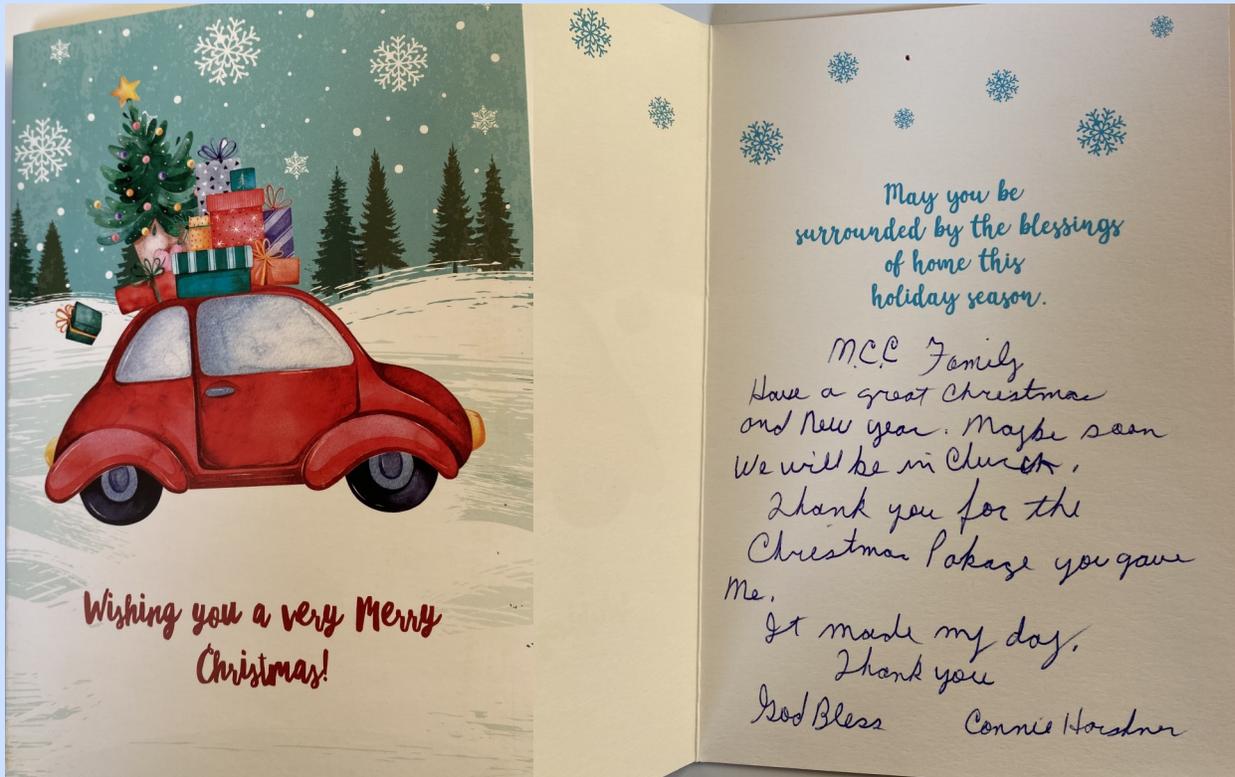

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
