Dear Friends,

These are strange, scary, worrisome times we are living in. The world is gripped in fear as the Covid-19 pandemic circles the globe. Daily, and even hourly we see grim updates of those infected, those in critical condition, and those who have died. This disease has brought the nations of the world to a standstill, stalled economies, frightened the populace, and cost lives and jobs. At times it is overwhelming and terrifying.

In these dark times, I am reminded of the fifth chapter of Matthew. Jesus is preaching and teaching his Sermon on the Mount. He starts by talking of who is blessed in this world and it isn't who you would think. It isn't the rich and the beautiful, the have's and the powerful. He talks of God's blessings on the poor, the merciful, and the peacemakers. And then he talks directly to his disciples and says, "You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hidden. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven."

Jesus is talking to you church, right there, in Matthew 5. YOU are the light of the world. In dark times it is YOU, through your words and actions, through your lives and deeds, YOU who will shine the light of God into dark places. Look outside. It's pretty dark out there right now. The world could use a few light bearers.

While we are dealing with shut-downs, and slow-downs, and set backs, what are you doing to shine God's light into the world? While people are gripped by fear and worry, what are you saying to bring light into the world? While we are unable to stand in the sanctuary together, what are you doing to be the light to the world? The church stands at a crossroads. The world is shrouded in darkness and is looking for the light. Will we be the ones to shine it on them?

Stay at home if possible. Wash your hands. Avoid physical interactions and contact. Be safe. But still be social: call people, text people, email, connect through social media and the internet. And still be kind, generous, grace-filled and loving. BE church, and shine your light.

God bless-stay safe
Mark

TAKE MY HAND
WE WILL GET THROUGH THIS TOGETHER

From Pam Boyd

Many people will walk in and out of your life,
But only true friends will leave footprints in your heart.
To handle yourself, use your head;
To handle others, use your heart.

Anger is only one letter short of danger.
If someone betrays you once, it's his fault;
If he betrays you twice, it's your fault.

Great minds discuss Ideas;
Average minds discuss events;
Small minds discuss people.

He who loses money, loses much;
He who loses a friend, loses much more;
He who loses faith, loses all.

Beautiful young people are accidents of nature,
But beautiful old people are works of art.

Learn from the mistakes of others
You can't live long enough to make them all yourself.

Friends, you and me.....You brought another friend...
And we started our group,...Our circle of friends...
And like a circle ...There is no beginning or end.

Yesterday is history.
Tomorrow is mystery.
Today is a gift.
