Colossians 3:12-17
12 As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. 13 Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. 14 Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. 15 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. 17 And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Dear Friends,
Regardless of how you voted, this past week has been trying and tense. It has been worrisome and concerning. I don't know about you, but I am exhausted. After months and months of speeches, rallies, advertisements, texts and phone calls, flyers in the mail, radio spots and TV interviews, we finally got to count the votes. As I write this, we are still waiting on the final word about who won.

Maybe we will know by the time you read this, or maybe we are in for more days/weeks? of legal challenges and court decisions to find out the final answer.

This election didn't bring out the best in us. Both sides are distrusting and wary of the other side. No longer do we simply disagree on policies or debate possible compromises. No, now we hate each other, despise each other, and write each other off as hopelessly stupid. And even though the election may be over, these acrimonious feelings are not simply slipping away. They continue to simmer and fester as we must now figure out how to move forward from here.

At this moment, Paul's words to the church in Colossae seem appropriate. In them Paul is exhorting the church in how to live together as Christians - how to put up with each other, how to get along, how to continue to focus on being disciples of Jesus Christ. "Clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. Bear with one another, forgive each other, and above all, clothe yourselves with love. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus.

I don't know what the next few days or weeks will hold. As for me, I am going to choose to follow Paul's advice. I hope you will too. God bless you, and God Bless our country.

In Christ,
Mark

DWM NEWS

Hi Ladies, it's me again.
With a report.

Well, as I write this, it is almost over. I don't mean the virus. Hopefully, we can get back to "normal" soon.

My report is that we have had some income, $60.00, but no expenses yet. We do usually send money to one of several NBA Homes in Oct. So I will get with our executive officers and pick one from the list. Any one wishing to donate, can see me in Church.

That's all folks.

God Bless you all.
Joyce Luke, Treasurer
Service Chair

Please help us recognize the dedication and hard work of our staff through a contribution to this year's Christmas Bonus. Gifts should be turned into the Treasurer through the offering plate with "STAFF CHRISTMAS BONUS" written on the envelope. November 29th is the last Sunday to contribute.

Thank You

Thank You!

While we were unable to be there each hour for the prayers on Election Day, we knew that you and the disciples congregation were with us. You were there with your support, your love and your strength to hold us up.

On Wednesday morning, as we listened to the election night communion service, we were fueled for the continuing hours that will be needed at the Johnson County Election offices to get this election certified & closed. Whatever the days ahead brings, we are ready!

Thank you & God Bless
Jackie & Pam

Lord, please be with us today and through these next days, or weeks, as we as a country try to move forward with our decisions. We know you hear our prayers and are with us, but many are worried, scared, anxious, and we need your peace and love today to strengthen us and heal us. Be with us now we pray, be with our communities, and especially be with our country.

It's Time for our Annual Cornucopia!

We are feeding 30 families from Merriam-Park and Crestview Elementary Schools for Thanksgiving this year. These are families the schools identified as needing some extra help at this time of year, who aren't being aided by other organizations. We provide a box of food and a ham for their Thanksgiving meal. We will collect donations of food items or donations to Make-a-Difference through Nov. 22.

Nov 8 - Spaghetti and Sauce

Nov 15 - Cereal, Hot or Cold

Nov 22 - BOXED Potatoes (Mashed, scalloped, etc.) No fresh potatoes please

Any other non-perishables you would like to donate are also welcomed. Folks are welcomed and encouraged to donate to Make-a-Difference as well, as we use those funds to purchase extra food we need. If you would like to help with this vital ministry, talk to Carole Prentice and the Outreach Committee.
